

Job Opportunity: Director at Springs Learning Center, New Haven, Connecticut

Become part of a mission-driven organization! Springs Learning Center, a ministry of the Dominican Sisters of Peace, is seeking a visionary Director to lead its efforts to break the cycle of poverty, empower adult learners, and enhance their quality of life. The center's staff and volunteers are devoted to uplifting the underserved through personalized tutoring in basic literacy, job preparedness, and citizenship.

Role: As the Director, you will lead the center, engage in strategic planning, manage educational programs, coordinate volunteers, and foster relationships in the community. This full-time role is crucial to grow and sustain the work of the center.

Qualifications:

- A bachelor's degree in education or a related discipline, master's degree preferred;
- Proven experience in adult education or ESL instruction;
- Previous administrative experience in a non-profit setting is preferred;
- Bilingual in English/Spanish and knowledge of the Catholic faith will be considered assets.

Candidates who are eager to contribute to educational transformation are encouraged to apply. For a comprehensive job description, please visit our website. Send your resume and references to the Dominican Sisters of Peace, Attention: Jennifer Dixon, at 2320 Airport Drive, Columbus, OH, 43219, or via email to jennifer.dixon@oppeace.org.

We are excited to welcome a leader who shares the center's commitment to lifelong learning and community empowerment.
