Cary Christian School

Colorado Christian University

Founded in 1914, Colorado Christian University provides Christ-centered higher education that transforms students to impact the world with grace and truth. Located in Lakewood, Colorado, a suburb of Denver, CCU is the flagship Christian university in the Rocky Mountain Region.

A leader in higher education, the University is consistently ranked in the top 2 percent of colleges and universities nationwide for its core curriculum by the American Council of Trustees and Alumni.

CCU offers undergraduate and graduate degrees for traditional and adult students through its College of Undergraduate Studies and College of Adult and Graduate Studies. CCU is an NCAA Division II university in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC).

CCU Academy

Through CCU Academy, Colorado Christian University provides opportunities for students to earn transferable college credit and even an associate degree prior to their high school graduation.

Dual credit and dual enrollment courses provide affordable general education courses for high school students in order to help reduce college costs and prepare for the rigor of college coursework.

CCU Academy courses are taught with a Christian worldview — in keeping with CCU's mission to provide Christ-centered higher education transforming students to impact the world with grace and truth.

Transferability

With our accreditation and four-year liberal arts university model, CCU Academy dual credit, online dual enrollment, and A.A. degree credits will transfer to most colleges and universities across the nation. However, it is still the decision of colleges and universities as to how/if these credits will transfer.

It is the responsibility of the student to contact individual colleges and universities of interest prior to registering for CCU Academy courses, or beginning an A.A. degree track.
