TOP SECRET REASONS TO JOIN THE SUMMER READING PROGRAM

By Laura Raphael, Children's Services coordinator, Tulsa City-County Library

PSSSTTT ... YOU. YES, YOU!
CAN YOU KEEP A SECRET?

Tulsa City-County Library's Summer Reading Program ("Oceans of Possibilities") begins June 1, and the features and benefits are not to be believed.

Honestly, if I weren't the Children's Services coordinator for the library and thus implicated in all this, I might be compelled to call the sheriff – surely this much free fun should be outlawed!

FIRST, GET A LOAD OF OUR COUPONS.

A free decorated cookie from Merritt's for kids? A one-day ticket to Safari Joe's H2O for teens and tweens? Free admission to the Tulsa Zoo for adults? FREE ADMISSION TO THE TULSA STATE FAIR FOR EVERYONE?! This has to be some kind of scam!

But no, it's true – for every program (There are four total, so everyone can participate: Littles, Children, Teens/Tweens and Adults.), you read a certain number of books to earn a book of coupons for a crazy number of free food items and entertainment options.

It's crazy! Surely you can understand why I need to keep this top secret!

BUT WAIT! THEN THERE ARE THE PRIZES!

LITTLES and CHILDREN who read eight books and visit the library four times get a commemorative medal, but if they read just 12 more books, guess what? They earn a bonus prize! These are absolutely extraordinary this year – for LITTLES (birth to pre-k), it's this completely adorable Buddy Bookworm plush toy. For CHILDREN (kindergarten to fifth grade), it's a Buddy Bookworm slap bracelet.

TEENS/TWEENS need to read just six books to get a lime-green drawstring backpack, and ADULTS who read four books will earn a beautiful canvas bag.

AND EVEN MORE PRIZES!

Even better, everyone in every program will be entered into grand-prize drawings for winning EVEN. MORE. PRIZES. How is this possible?

Well, the Tulsa Library Trust and our wonderful sponsors, if you really want to know.)

From a Whataburger "swag bag" for TEENS/TWEENS (which is truly incredible; one bag of goodies weighs more than most teens!) to one of five Safari Joe's H2O Birthday Party packages for CHILDREN, to a membership for two to Philbrook Museum of Art for ADULTS, the grand prizes are truly GRAND!

I HAVEN'T EVEN TOLD YOU ABOUT OUR PROGRAMS AND PERFORMERS.

Hold on to your hats, dear friends, because this summer, every one of our 24 branch libraries will become places you can see the best in musical performances, science experiments, balloon making and more! We hire the top national performers to entertain and delight you and your family.

And then there are the library programs! Our summer storytimes are second to none, and children's and teen librarians pull out all the stops to connect young people to books and activities and social interactions that they will love.

WE DON'T TALK (ENOUGH) ABOUT ... BOOKS!

This is one aspect of the Summer Reading Program you CAN shout from the rooftops! We don't talk nearly enough about books and other materials that the library purchases for your enjoyment, entertainment and knowledge.

It's in the hundreds of thousands, y'all. Isn't that amazing?

While our collections are available year-round, the library does order extra items for the summer so that EVERYONE can find something they want to read. From adult bestsellers to the latest picture books, your favorite musical CDs to downloadable audiobooks, our collections will be ready for you this summer!

FINALLY, THE BEST-KEPT SECRET OF ALL: THE BENEFITS OF READING ARE THE BEST OF ALL WORLDS.

Think about the healthiest habits you can form: eating vegetables, running three miles a day, getting lots of sleep. That's not exactly fun, but it does make you feel better and live longer.

Now add something perfectly delightful and pure pleasure: listening to the latest album by your favorite singer (Hello, Beyonce!), watching a beautiful sunset, the sound of a laughing baby.

THAT IS WHAT READING IS.

It's the healthiest thing for your brain PLUS the most pleasurable thing for your life.

Ultimately, the best and most top secret reason to join the Summer Reading Program? It reminds you to READ, which has endless benefits for your intelligence, enjoyment and life.

DON'T TELL ANYBODY!

Un océano de posibilidades para leer este verano

Por Ana Davis, asistente bilingüe de servicio al cliente, Biblioteca Regional Martin

Las vacaciones nos regalan esa pausa que nos permite hacer algunas cosas que durante el resto del año no podemos, por ejemplo, leer uno o varios libros, en papel o en tu dispositivo electrónico. Y con el verano a la vuelta de la esquina, que mejor que prepararnos para el programa de lectura de verano de este año, los últimos dos años el programa de verano no fue tan divertido ya que no podíamos tener eventos, además, a esos grandes nombres de la literatura del continente latinoamericano como son Pablo Neruda, Roberto Bolaño o Juan Rulfo les ha tomado el relevo una generación de escritores jóvenes. Un fenómeno que ha sido catalogado de "boom" y que ha llegado para renovar la tradición con una mirada más fresca y moderna. Cuando pensamos en verano evocamos viajes, aventuras, diversión y muchas otras cosas que nos hacen disfrutar a todos como niños, jóvenes o adultos, pero también el verano es una estación que invita a la lectura. Tenemos más tiempo libre y menos obligaciones de todo tipo.

La literatura latinoamericana es una joya que brilla por la riqueza de su variedad de culturas y de la que tenemos la suerte de poder disfrutar sin intermediarios gracias a una lengua en común. Y así como muchos, yo también estoy esperando el verano para poder leer estos dos libros que están en mi lista, claro hay más de dos, pero estos son los que he estado esperando para tener ese tiempo libre para disfrutar con gusto.

>> Autoras Ingrid Rojas Contreras y Mónica Ojeda

El primero es El hombre que podía mover nubes/The Man Who Could Move Clouds desde que supe de este libro lo he estado esperando con ansias. El hombre que podía mover nubes es obra de Ingrid Rojas Contreras, y como en su libro la describe, a ella la magia le viene de familia. Creció en la Colombia de los años ochenta y noventa en una casa en la que se preguntaba "¿qué soñaste?" en lugar de "¿cómo estás?", y su mundo estaba lleno de profecías y violencia. Su abuelo materno, Nono, era un curandero de renombre, un curandero de la comunidad dotado de la capacidad de hablar con los muertos, decir el futuro, curar a los enfermos y mover las nubes. De pequeña, Rojas Contreras escuchaba la adivinación de su madre desde la escalera y esperaba ansiosa los momentos en que Mami aparecía en dos lugares a la vez. Estaba acostumbrada a "dejar entrar a los fantasmas."

Y el segundo es Mandíbula/Jawbone de Mónica Ojeda, es su última novela. En ella, una adolescente fanática del horror despierta maniatada en una cabaña en medio del bosque. Su secuestradora es una de sus profesoras, una mujer joven a quien ella y sus amigas han atormentado durante meses en un colegio de élite del Opus Dei.

La Biblioteca de la ciudad y el condado de Tulsa esta en preparaciones para celebrar una vez más su programa de verano para toda la familia, donde el tema a celebrar es "Un océano de posibilidades." ¿Qué te parece el tema? ¿Te encantaría hacer ese viaje de descubrimiento en lo más profundo del océano? ¡Ven y visítanos! En cualquiera de las 24 bibliotecas de la ciudad y el condado de Tulsa será un buen momento para adentrarse en historias que nos permitan viajar, vivir aventuras, conocer otras culturas, y más a través de los libros.

Celebrando Día de los Niños con el Centro Hispano

La biblioteca y el centro se enorgullecieron de organizar 10 emocionantes eventos en varias bibliotecas del sistema durante el mes de abril. Los eventos consistieron en una variedad de eventos culturales, divertidos, y interesantes, que culminaron con una Fiesta del Libro el 28 de abril en la Biblioteca Owasso. Nos complació dar la bienvenida a los clientes a la programación en persona y poder ofrecer actividades divertidas, manualidades y eventos para familias de todas las edades.

En particular, el Centro organizó una actividad de cerámica en la Biblioteca Regional Zarrow, donde a los participantes se les dio un bloque de arcilla de terracota para trabajar y utilizaron varias técnicas y herramientas para crear su propia versión de un "Cantarito" latinoamericano, que es una taza hecha de arcilla de terracota que los artesanos en América Latina han pasado años perfeccionando. Otra divertida actividad fue la visita del Ballet Folklórico Sol Azteca al Jardín Tandy de la Biblioteca Central. El evento fue el primer regreso del grupo a las actuaciones en persona y el grupo tuvo audiencias dentro y fuera de la biblioteca.
