

General Meeting

The Proposed Chumash Heritage National Marine Sanctuary

Wednesday, March 16th, 7pm-8:30pm

Learn more about the Central Coast's long awaited proposed Chumash Heritage National Marine Sanctuary, the first Tribally nominated national marine sanctuary in the US. Over 40 years of efforts have brought this proposal to where it is today: on the brink of designation.

Join us to learn about national marine sanctuaries on the Central Coast, the history of the Chumash sanctuary designation campaign, and how you can help in the last stretch of the campaign to ensure that the Chumash Heritage National Marine Sanctuary gets designated.

Guest speakers:

Violet Sage-Walker, Chairwoman, Northern Chumash Tribal Council

Dan Haifley, Vice Chair, Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary Advisory Council

Andrew Christie, Director, Santa Lucia Chapter of the Sierra Club
